Raleigh, NC – Congressman Brad Miller (NC-13) congratulated Parker Stewart, a student at Greensboro Day School in Greensboro, as the 13th District First Place Winner of the annual Congressional Art Contest at a special awards ceremony this week-end.

Stewart received his award at the Congressional Art Contest Show and Reception on Saturday, May 7th at the North Carolina Museum of Art. He was awarded a scholarship from a prestigious collegiate art and design school, a $500 US Savings Bond and complimentary framing of his artwork. He will also be flown to Washington DC where he will participate in a national reception. His work will hang in the Cannon Pedestrian Tunnel as part of a special show over the next year.

"Art exemplifies the freedoms of our country; we often take for granted the gift we have to express our views and opinions. I support art education as a key component to a well rounded education. " said Rep. Miller.

Second through fourth place winners are listed below. For a complete list of winners including Judge's Special Merit and Honorable Mention visit our website at www.bradmiller.house.gov and click the Congressional Art Contest link or click here.
